Welcome to the Ruben Law Firm, a leading Chapter 7 and Chapter 13 bankruptcy services provider owned and operated by the Law Offices of David L. Ruben, P.A. Thank you for choosing us to assist you with your bankruptcy needs. We understand that filing bankruptcy is never an easy process, and our goal is to make it as painless and simple as possible for you. We believe we provide a combination of the most competent, attentive, and affordable bankruptcy services in the state of Maryland.

The bankruptcy laws, which have been around since the inception of our great country, are designed to help you and give you a fresh start. However, the laws we must follow in order to achieve your goals for you require the filer to gather a lot of information and answer a lot of financially related questions. Our job is to help you get all of that information together and then use it to properly and successfully prepare your bankruptcy petition with the bankruptcy court and to make sure all of your “dischargeable debts” are eliminated and that your rights are protected. Please take the time to read through the information provided in this information packet. If you have any questions about anything throughout the process, we are here to answer your questions.

THE BANKRUPTCY PROCESS: FROM FIRST CONTACT TO FRESH START

The following gives you a general guide to the bankruptcy process.

1. The first step is to meet and/or speak with one of our staff to discuss your case. The person writing this is David L. Ruben, Esquire, the owner. I do my best to speak with and meet with every new client that contacts us about our services. It is my firm and it is my responsibility to take you through the process. I have an amazing staff of attorneys and paralegals that will help you every step of the way and do much of the paperwork, but you can always rest assured that I take full responsibility for everything that goes on at my firm.
2. I will discuss the fee for bankruptcy during our first conversation either on the phone or in the office. Many law firms will not do that. They will “get you in” the office first so they can say what is necessary in order to get you to pay them as much as possible. I will never do that. Chapter 7 and Chapter 13 bankruptcy is not complicated. Within 5 minutes on your phone I can tell you exactly what I think you should do and how much it will cost. I am not shy about telling you my fees because it is lower than most other bankruptcy service law firms in Maryland.

3. Once you decide to retain our firm (90% of people with real interest in filing bankruptcy do in fact retain our firm), we will sign a retainer agreement. With the retainer agreement, you will make a payment. Your retainer agreement can be as low as $100 or you can pay the entire fee and court fees. Once you have paid ANY amount of money to us we can and will stop the harassing phone calls from the creditors. Once the fees are paid in full (we will work out a payment plan when we speak), we will be able to file the petition for you with the bankruptcy court and any foreclosure, garnishment, lawsuits and collection efforts will be stopped.
4. In ALL bankruptcy cases, the debtor (you) is required to complete “pre-filing credit counseling” before the bankruptcy is filed. It is completed online in the comfort of your own home and takes about an hour. This process, which is very easy and simple, is explained later in this paperwork and we will explain it to you as well.
5. The next step is to gather documents for us. The bankruptcy court will not accept your case unless you provide the requested paperwork or give explanation as to why you cannot. There is a list of documents just a few pages into this packet, take a look when you can. The most important documents are the last two years of tax returns that you filed, your most recent last 6 months worth of paystubs and your last two months of pay statements. Unfortunately “I cannot find them” is not an excuse the bankruptcy court accepts. You may have to contact the IRS, or your employer, or your bank, to get the documents.
6. Next you will complete the Client Questionnaire. We understand that some of it is confusing and you may not have a lot of the information that we are asking for. That is okay, we will help you with it. You can call and e-mail us at anytime with questions and we will answer them (e-mail is preferred, but it is up to you). Remember though, the information we are requesting is the EXACT information that the bankruptcy court needs in order to process your case and eliminate your debt for you, so you need to do the best job that you can.
7. Once you have completed filling out the Client Questionnaire and gathered as much of the required documentation as you can, you get it all back to us. We recognize that many of you live far away and/or it is not easy to get by the office due to work or children. That’s okay. You can e-mail the information to david@rubenlaw.com or you can fax it to (443) 459-8203 anytime. We do not need originals, just copies, so if you want to scan and email, or just forward an e-mail that contains an attachment, which is fine too. Our goal is to make it as easy as possible for you.

8. We will review the documentation and questionnaire and let you know what else, if anything, we need from you.
9. Once you have provided us with everything that we need and have paid our fee and the filing fee in full, we will then prepare your bankruptcy petition. This is the work we do and it is quite extensive. We are well staffed to get it done very quickly and it can usually be done within just a week or so. If it is an emergency and we are stopping a foreclosure or a garnishment, or unfreezing a bank account, we will get it done immediately. We will then call or e-mail you when it is complete and we will schedule an appointment for you to come into the office. Remember that you cannot sign your petition, and it cannot be filed, until the fees are paid in full.
10. We have found that the best way to make sure that we eliminate all of your dischargeable debt is to pull up a credit report for you from all three credit agencies. We will work with a company that provides all three reports, and imports your creditors into our system. It is an incredible service and costs only $38 for an individual and $73 for a married couple. That cost is in addition to the attorney fee and the filing fee, but it is well worth it. We do not make any money on the service, we pay the service the $38 or $73, but because it is so efficient and thorough, it helps us charge less for our services than most of our competitors. We will get the credit report information from you once you retain our services.
11. Once your completed bankruptcy petition is reviewed and signed we will “file” it with the United States Bankruptcy Court. It is federal court, not state court, and there are two such courts in Maryland. There is one in Baltimore and one in Greenbelt. If you reside in Baltimore, Anne Arundel, Howard, Carroll, Frederick or other counties in western Maryland or the eastern shore, we file in Baltimore. If you live in Montgomery, Prince George’s, or other counties in southern Maryland, we will file in Greenbelt. Your petition will be filed electronically from our office and we will pay the filing fee for you with the funds that you have provided to us.
12. Approximately 30 days after your bankruptcy is filed you will have what we call a “meeting of creditors” either in Baltimore, Greenbelt, Salisbury, or Hagerstown, depending on where you live. While it is called a “meeting of creditors,” don’t worry, creditors rarely, if ever, show up to the meetings. The meeting is a very short conference, usually less than 10 minutes, where you will appear in a conference room (not a courtroom) and answer questions to verify that the information that you provided in the bankruptcy petition was true at the time you filed. You must bring a photo ID and proof of your social security number with you to the meeting. We will be with you at the meeting to help you and answer any questions that you may have. In Chapter 13 cases there is an additional hearing called a “Confirmation Hearing” that you may have to attend. We will explain to you if and when that happens.

13. On occasion, at the meeting of creditors the Trustee (the lawyer appointed by the court to “manage” your case) will ask for further information or more documentation. That is okay, in fact, with some Trustees, it is normal. It does not mean that your case is not going to be successful. As long as you provide what is requested, everything will be okay.
14. After we complete the filing, you will be required to complete “Post-Filing Financial Management.” Similar to the pre-filing credit counseling, it is easy and cheap, but it must be done in order to receive your final discharge. You can do it anytime after we file your petition, but no later than 30 days after the meetings of creditors.
15. In a Chapter 7, you will receive your final discharge papers in the mail 90 days after the meeting of creditors. You will receive the paperwork directly from the court. You will no longer owe the money that you owed prior the bankruptcy for all dischargeable debts. For a Chapter 13, once your Plan is confirmed you will continue making the planned payments for the period of time designated. It will all be explained to you throughout the process.
16. IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS AT ANY TIME, PLEASE E-MAIL OR CALL US, THAT IS WHAT WE ARE HERE FOR!

PRE-FILING CREDIT COUNSELING AND POST-FILING DEBTOR EDUCATION

Both pre-filing credit counseling and post-filing debtor education are required in every case. They are both cheap, quick and easy. Your case cannot be filed until your pre-filing credit counseling is finished and your case cannot be concluded until your post-filing debtor education is complete.

We recommend the following providers for these services. These are the cheapest and most well organized providers we have found. We have no affiliation with either of them, the choice is entirely you as to which provider you use.

1. ACADEMY OF FINANCIAL LITERACY – Internet
$17.95 pre-filing and $14.95 for post-filing
2. ABACUS CREDIT COUNSELING – Internet or Phone
www.abacusec.org
$25.00 pre-filing and $35.00 for post-filing

When you have completed your program, a certificate of completion will be e-mailed to my office. These providers have our e-mail address, but if not, tell them to e-mail it to david@rubenlaw.com or fax to (443) 459-8203. You are filing in the United States Bankruptcy Court in the District of Maryland.

LIST OF REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

The bankruptcy process requires that certain documents be provided to the court when the bankruptcy is filed. Do your best to get us all the documents listed below. You may need to contact your accountant, or the IRS, or your employer or your bank. We know that you are busy and it might be time-consuming or difficult, but you must do your best. If you have a problem, let us know and we will try and help. Feel free to e-mail, fax, mail, or drop of the documents anytime.

1. Completed Federal and State Income Tax Returns for the last 2 years that you have filed your returns. If you cannot find them, go to the IRS website and request a free tax transcript, it's very easy.
2. Documentation of proof of income for you for the past 6 months. If you are married, we need proof of income for both of you even if only one of you is filing. If you have a regular job, we need all paystubs received within the past 6 months. If you are self-employed, you will fill out six separate months of self-employed statements that you will find in this packet. If you receive treatment, or social security, or disability, or unemployment, we need proof of those payments within the past 6 months as well.
3. Bank statements of any and all bank accounts that your name is on for the past 2 months. That includes bank statements if your name is on an account with a spouse, parent or friend. If you are self-employed or only receive social security, we will need 6 months of bank statements from you.
4. If you have them, the most recent bill from each of your creditors. That includes credit cards, medical bills, mortgage payments, car loan statements, etc. If you cannot find them, that is okay, that is why we get your credit report. Do the best you can.
5. Copies of titles of all your vehicles. Providing the titles does not mean you are losing or giving up your car, you are not. It is just something that the bankruptcy court needs. If you cannot find the titles you will need to request a duplicate copy from the MVA website.
6. If you are separated from your spouse and have a written separation agreement, please provide it. If you are paying or receiving child support and have a court order, please provide it.
7. If you have a 401(k), 403(b), IRA or other retirement statement, please provide us the most recent statement. You are going to keep your entire retirement, but you still need to provide a statement.

8. If you own a home and have had an appraisal or a comparative market analysis done in the past year, please provide a copy. If not, if possible, please go to www.zillow.com, put in your address and print out this analysis. This does not mean that you are going to lose your house.
9. Any collection notices that you have received.
10. Any lawsuits or other court papers from any debts that you may have.
11. Any other documents that you think might be relevant to your situation.

We know that for some people gathering documentation is not easy. Do the best you can and if you have any questions, please contact us.

STATEMENT ABOUT REAFFIRMATION OF CARS AND HOUSES

A frequent question that arises during bankruptcy is about reaffirmation agreements. As we have probably already told you, you will NOT lose your home or give up your car in a bankruptcy as long as you are up to date on your monthly payments. When you file Chapter 7, even though you are KEEPING your car or house, you are technically eliminating the debt. You no longer owe the company money, however, the company still holds the lien on the property. That is why it is called a secured debt. The debt is secured by the property, which means if you do not pay it they can take your property. In bankruptcy the debt goes away, but not the lien. Once you are in bankruptcy your car loan company and the mortgage company will sometimes reach out to you to ask you to REAFFIRM your debt. They want you to sign a new document saying that even though you filed bankruptcy, you continue to be financially responsible. They do that because they know that if you do not sign a reaffirmation agreement, and for whatever reason in the future you are not able to pay the loan, they will not get any money from you. They will be able to get the property, but not the money, and usually the property is not worth nearly as much as the amount owed. We always advise our clients NOT to sign a reaffirmation agreement because there is no advantage to the client. The car loan or mortgage company may tell you that it will be better for your future credit score if you reaffirm your debt. We do not know if that is true or not, and if you want to believe it and reaffirm, that is up to you. We just want you to know that in the event that you are unable to pay the loan or mortgage in the future, and you sign a reaffirmation agreement, you will still be obligated to pay the debt.

We know this is strange and complicated and doesn't seem to make much sense. If you have any questions about it, let us know.

YOUR BANK ACCOUNT—PLEASE READ

Please read the following. We want you to be aware of two things that may happen when you file bankruptcy.

1. If you have a checking account or a savings account with WELLS FARGO, we strongly advise you change banks before we file the bankruptcy petition. Whether you owe Wells Fargo any money or not, it tends to freeze bank accounts upon the filing of the bankruptcy petition. This includes ANY accounts that you may have with Wells Fargo, on your own or joint with a spouse or another person. So the safest thing to do is remove your money from Wells Fargo and put it in another bank.

2. If you have a checking account or a savings account with ANY bank and you HAVE A DEBT with that same bank, you should change bank accounts. For example, if you bank with SECU, and you have a credit card, car payment or mortgage with SECU, you should change banks before we file the bankruptcy petition. The reason is because if you file bankruptcy on a debt from a bank, and that same bank is holding money of yours, the bank has the right to “set-off” your debt with money in the bank account. So, again, if you have any debt to a bank and you have a checking or savings account with that bank, change banks before we file bankruptcy. This rule regarding banks holds true for all banks, including credit unions.

After the bankruptcy is discharged you will be free to bank wherever you choose.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT BANKRUPTCY ASSISTANCE SERVICES FROM AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER

If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you can represent yourself, you can hire an attorney to represent you, or you can get help in some localities from a bankruptcy petition preparer who is not an attorney. THE LAW REQUIRES AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER TO GIVE YOU A WRITTEN CONTRACT SPECIFYING WHAT THE ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER WILL DO FOR YOU AND HOW MUCH IT WILL COST. Ask to see the contract before you hire anyone.

The following information helps you understand what must be done in a routine bankruptcy case to help you evaluate how much service you need. Although bankruptcy can be complex, many cases are routine.

Before filing a bankruptcy case, either you or your attorney should analyze your eligibility for different forms of debt relief under the Bankruptcy Code and which form of relief is the most likely to be beneficial for you. Be sure you understand the relief you can obtain and its limitations. To file a bankruptcy case, documents called a Petition, Schedules, and Statement of Financial Affairs, and in some cases a Statement of Intention, need to be prepared correctly and filed with the bankruptcy court. You will have to pay a filing fee to the bankruptcy court. Once your case starts, you will have to attend the required first meeting of the creditors where you may be questioned by a court official called a 'trustee' and by creditors.

If you choose to file a chapter 7 case, you may be asked by a creditor to reaffirm a debt. You may want help deciding whether to do so. A creditor is not permitted to coerce you into reaffirming your debts.

If you choose to file a chapter 13 case in which you repay your creditors what you can afford over 3 to 5 years, you may also want help with preparing your chapter 13 plan and with the confirmation hearing on your plan which will be before a bankruptcy judge.

If you select another type of relief under the Bankruptcy Code other than chapter 7 or chapter 13, you will still want to find out what should be done from someone familiar with that type of relief.

Your bankruptcy case may also involve litigation. You are generally permitted to represent yourself in litigation in bankruptcy court, but only attorneys, not bankruptcy petition preparers, can give you legal advice.

Disclosure Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 527(a)(2)

You are notified:

1. All information that you are required to provide with a petition and thereafter during a case under the Bankruptcy Code is required to be complete, accurate, and truthful.
2. All assets and all liabilities are required to be completely and accurately disclosed in the documents filed to commence the case. Some places in the Bankruptcy Code require that you list the replacement value of each asset. This must be the replacement value of the property at the date of filing the petition, without deducting for costs of sale or marketing, established after a reasonable inquiry. For property acquired for personal, family, or household use, replacement value means the price a retail merchant would charge for property of that kind, considering the age and condition of the property.
3. The following information, which appear on Official Form 22, Statement of Current Monthly Income, are required to be stated after reasonable inquiry: current monthly income, the amounts specified in section 707(b)(2), and, in a case under chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code, disposable income (determined in accordance with section 707(b)(2)).
4. Information that you provide during your case may be audited pursuant to provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Failure to provide such information may result in dismissal of the case under this title or other sanction, including criminal sanctions.

WARNING: Effective December 1, 2009, the 15-day deadline to file schedules and certain other documents under Bankruptcy Rule 1007(c) is shortened to 14 days. For further information, see note.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER §342(b) OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a “means test” designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny Form B 201A, Notice to Consumer Debtor(s) Page 2 your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.

Note: Many filing deadlines change on December 1, 2009. Of special note, 12 rules that set 15 days to act are amended to require action within 14 days, including Rule 1009(c), filing the initial case papers; Rule 3015(b), filing a chapter 13 plan; Rule 8009(a), filing appellate briefs; and Rules 1019, 1020, 2015, 2015.1, 2016, 4001, 4002, 6004, and 6007.
